

St. Joseph

Bryan

Description

BEGINNING at the point where Highway 6 intersects the Brazos-Robertson County Line, which is marked by OSR Highway;

THEN northeasterly along the Brazos-Robertson County Line until it intersects the Brazos-Madison County Line, which is marked by the Navasota River;

THEN meandering along the Navasota River in a southerly direction until it intersects Long Trussel Road;

THEN northwesterly along Long Trussel Road until it intersects Cobb Road;

THEN southwesterly along Cobb Road until it intersects Grassbur Road;

THEN meandering along Grassbur Road in a generally southerly direction until it intersects Elmo Weedon Road;

THEN southwesterly along Elmo Weedon Road until it intersects Booneville Road;

THEN northwesterly along Booneville Road until it intersects University Drive;

THEN southeasterly along University Drive until it intersects College Avenue;

THEN northerly along College Avenue until it intersects Texas Avenue;

THEN northwesterly along Texas Avenue, past the point where it joins Highway 6, and continuing northwesterly along Highway 6 to the POINT OF BEGINNING.

ADDITIONALLY, the following is excluded in the foregoing boundaries: any land that is owned by Texas A&M University and that it considers to be part of its campus.